

WHY STUDY BUSINESS AT MILES COLLEGE?

- Classes are offered at convenient times during day and evening.
- Small class size
- Personal attention
- Financial Aid for students who qualify
- Programs help students develop marketable skills in business, management, leadership, professional writing, oral presentation, critical thinking, and computer applications

Mission

Prepare students for careers in accounting, business, and management. The courses offered also prepare students for graduate study, and for entrepreneurship

Acquiring Skills/Abilities

Business is a broad area with many career opportunities. Business professionals can expect growing status and increased financial and personal rewards. People working in the business field are expected to use their skills in order to produce significant and measurable results for their organizations.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

All students in the Business Division are encouraged to participate in student organizations. Benefits from involvement in a student organization include:

- Networking on a local, regional and national level
- Enhancing professional development by attending organization meetings
- Interacting with employers and entrepreneurs who recruit at regional and national level
- Internship opportunities
- Awards and scholarships for outstanding performance

LEADERSHIP SKILLS BUILDING OPPORTUNITIES

Students in Free Enterprises (SIFE)

Develop leadership, teamwork, and communication skills through learning, practicing, and teaching others the principles of free enterprise.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA)

Students receive practical training in income tax procedures and electronic filing by IRS and the faculty at Miles. VITA is a community service program in which students assist low-income taxpayers in income tax filing.

Internship

This program allows students to obtain practical experience while enrolled in school.

Senior Seminar

Various business workshops and seminars provide student opportunities to interact with entrepreneurs and business professionals.
